Hayes A. Newby Ph.D.

NEWBY, Ph.D, HAYES A. Hayes A. Newby was born in Marion, Ohio, on April 2, 1914, to Alva Wilbur Newby and Mary Elsie Hayes Newby, both now deceased, as is his only sibling, Nannette Newby Warner. He graduated from Harding High School in Marion in 1931, received an A.B. from Ohio Wesleyan University in 1935; an M.A. in 1941 and a Ph.D. in 1947 from the University of Iowa. At Ohio Wesleyan, he was a member of Phi Delta Theta social fraternity and Phi Beta Kappa, Omicron Delta Kappa and Theta Alpha Phi, honorary fraternities. In 1936 he married Jean Louise Herbert of Cleveland Heights, Ohio, also a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan. They had three children, Jeffrey Hayes Newby of Simi Valley, CA, Scott Herbert Newby of Merced, CA, and Nancy Jean Newby of Oviedo, FL. There are four grandchildren, Jeffrey's daughters, Janice Justine Elizabeth Ketzle and Shannon Anastasia Louise Barker, and Scott's daughter, Kathryn Diana Newby; and one grandson, Sean Hayes Newby, son of Scott. Austin Hayes Barker, son of Shannon, is a great-grandchild as is Alexander Hayes Clarke Ketzle, son of Janice J. Ketzle. There is one great-grand- daughter, Anastasia Victoria Barker, daughter of Shannon. Dr. Newby was on the faculty at Stanford University from 1947 to 1967. He also taught at Queens College of the City University of New York, 1967 to 1969, and at the University of Maryland, College Park, 1969 to 1979, from which he retired as Professor Emeritus of Hearing and Speech Sciences. Among his professional organizations were the American Speech-Language- Hearing Association, which he served as president in 1964, and the Acoustical Society of America. During his professional career, Dr. Newby served as a consultant to the Veterans Administration, the Federal Vocational Rehabilitation Administration and the Federal Office of Education. In 1958, his textbook, Audiology, was published. It has gone through six editions. During World War II, Dr. Newby served in all three theaters of the war as a Lieutenant in the U.S. Navy. Following his retirement from the University of Maryland, he and Mrs. Newby moved from Annapolis, Maryland, to Punta Gorda, Florida, where they participated in many activities in their community of Punta Gorda Isles. They were members of the Isles Yacht Club, St. Andrews South Golf Club and the Charlotte County Art Guild. In 1995, Dr. and Mrs. Newby moved to a retirement facility, Lake Port Square, in Leesburg, Florida.
