
Nina Ketzle

KETZLE, NINA, 92, of John Knox Village in Pompano, passed away March 25, 2005. Born in Jacksonville, FL, she is a second generation Floridian. She is a graduate of Florida State College for Women (FSU) and received her MA from Columbia University in 1937. Nina taught high school business education in Jacksonville. In 1949, Mrs. Ketzle came to Miami Shores with her husband Clarke. She taught business education at North Miami Senior High School from 1956 until retiring in 1971. Mrs. Ketzle sponsored the FBLA club at the school. Mrs. Ketzle moved to John Knox Village in 1992 where she was a volunteer in many activities including the large print library. She was a long-time member of the Miami Shores Community Church. Survivors include her sister Phyllis Pyburn of Tampa, FL, sons, James (Cindy) & Henry (Patty); grandchildren: Jeffrey (JJ), Paul (Marcia), Tricia Munger (Jamie), Pamela; and 3 great-grandsons. A memorial service will be held at John Knox Village Chapel on Tuesday at 7 PM. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations to the American Cancer Society or your favorite charity. Arrangements by: Kraeer Funeral Home and Cremation Center, 954-941-4111. To visit this Guest Book Online, go to www.herald.com/obituaries.

Published in The Miami Herald on 3/28/2005.

Back
